

Stobart keeps it fresh

The rail division of haulage giant Stobart Group is to offer a temperature-controlled rail service from Valencia to the UK via the Channel Tunnel. Stobart Rail has partnered with DB Schenker Rail in Doncaster to provide the new service. Andrew Tinkler, chief executive of Stobart Group, said the move enables "a cost effective and environmentally friendly solution" for transporting fresh products.

Source: North West Business Insider online news service.